

Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

Build Midwest Connections

Engage hundreds of professionals from the Midwest

The AMM-AIM 2023 Conference is expected to draw 400+ attendees from 8 states of the Midwest and beyond. We anticipate attendance (virtually and in-person) by individuals representing a range of disciplines, career stages, and museum types – from history and art museums to science centers and historic homes. Conference communications reach 5,000+ professionals through email and social media.

Benefits of Participation

Companies who choose to extend their support of the organization through monetary and in-kind gifts gain access to a range of recognition and benefits.

- Build on existing relationships and make new connections
- Increase visibility among Midwest museums, science centers, historic sites, universities, and libraries
- Position your company as supporter of museums
- Establish yourself as a reliable and trustworthy resource

In-Kind Products and Services

In-Kind Contributions

Museums and companies can support the conference as an In-Kind Sponsor by providing goods or services at reduced or no cost, in order to help us continue to offer low registration and event ticket rates for attendees.

In-kind sponsor opportunities include serving as an event host and/or offering event space, food, beverage, and hospitality service; transportation; AV technical support and hardware loans; and rent-free meeting space, classroom, advertising, or facility use for workshops and events.

We welcome museums of all types and sizes to consider partnering with us as conference hosts. Partner organizations will be recognized for their in-kind contributions of space, food, beverage, and/or staff time.

Recognition and Benefits

Show off your range of services and leave a lasting impression on attendees as an In-Kind Sponsor of evening events, pre-conference workshops, or daily sessions.

In-kind sponsorship contributions are valued based on the event budget or 50% of market value of goods and services provided. In addition, your in-kind contributions may be considered tax deductible.

All In-Kind Sponsors will be recognized in the conference program, on onsite sponsored event signage, the conference website (ammconference.org), AMM website (midwestmuseums.org), the conference program sponsor page, and in event-related social media posts or email blasts.

Based on the value of in-kind goods and services, your company may also receive:

- Complimentary conference registrations
- Complimentary evening event tickets
- Complimentary exhibitor booth space
- Feature blog posts or e-news articles
- Ad in the final conference program
- Complimentary tote bag insert
